

Smyly

[b]Boston, MA[/b]

Born in Boston, MA in a city called Roslindale, he's Definitely not your average rapper or performer. Smyly is the newest member of Crime Rime. "Crime Rime is an urban militia of rap talent, that when combined with other affiliates are known to be an unstoppable force, a modern day melting pot of nationalities that personifies the Streets".

Smyly the new and charismatic member of the group from boston is hungry for this music and confident without coming off too cocky. He is also the commercial multi-talented artist that can combine a thousand styles and put into one song. SMYLY {CRIME RIME} ~ HAS THE "CHEVY'S RIDIN' HIGH" IN THE DIRTY SOUTH! SMYLY'S NEW SINGLE "FLOOD IT OUT" IS A COMBINATION OF NORTH MEETS SOUTH BY ADDIN' LIQUID FIRE TO THAT DEEP SOUTH SOUND. for a example his world-wide hit song "Nascar Driver" where he combines hip-hop with reggaeton.

Smyly aka Mr. Flooded Out A highly energetic and charismatic emcee, Smyly has established himself as one of the premier artists in Boston. Featured in magazine's such as "THE SOURCE MAGAZINE" also as a funny host on "TOUCH" 106.1 FM. I also went to Berklee College of Music in 2002.

His single "Flood It Out" has been blazing the airwaves, in the streets and it has earned him the attention of industry A&R's and DJ's across the country. With the upcoming release of his highly anticipated mixtape in collaboration with GeorgYung, DIEGO A.K.A LARRY BYRD, No-Chance, Ray Diamonds, A.Reigns, SC The Movement, and Mr.Funky Fresh entitled

"Smyly Meets The Muffin Man" and his solo debut project "The Bakers Man" which is a mixture of all genre into one mixtape, it's no wonder the emcee also known as Mr. Flood It Out and has a reason to smile. With a group coming from so many different personalities and nationalities, there is sure to be something for everyone with every release he comes at you with.
